

<https://codedog.solutions/job/solution-architect/>

Solution Architect

Description

The Code Dog Technology Group Solution Architect (SA) is responsible for implementing and designing a solution architecture for our partner clients. The SA additionally works with the Product Development team to build product enhancements that are highly tailored to the majority of our partners' needs.

The SA is involved in all stages of the delivery lifecycle project. This includes communicating and gathering requirements from all stakeholders and understanding their pain points to define the right vision of the implementation. The SA will work with a Code Dog business analyst to assist the BA in translating stakeholders' requirements into functional and nonfunctional requirements. The SA also assists explaining these requirements and architectural framework design to the professional services engineering team to configure our implement the solution. The SA is also responsible for the oversight of the final product configuration and review of the professional services engineer's work.

Responsibilities

- Delivery of the cloud architecture solutions and design framework documents
- Explaining complex details to all-levels of stakeholders from C-suite to 1st level support
- Writing technical documents

Qualifications

- Fluent in Spanish and English
- 5+ years of experience
- Degree in computer science, information systems, or equivalent experience
- An understanding of the cloud computing business model
- Experience building solutions using cloud services.
- Experience working with the public sector
- Strong ability to dive deep and document customer solutions
- Strong analytical skills
- Strong consultative skills
- Detail oriented
- Strong communication skills (written and verbal)
- Ability to work independently, adapt quickly, and maintain a positive attitude
- Must be able to thrive in a Fun, fast-paced, high-energy environment

Hiring organization

Code Dog Technology Group

Employment Type

Contractor

Beginning of employment

1/2023

Industry

IT

Job Location

151 Calle de San Francisco, 00910,
San Juan, PR

Date posted

January 7, 2023